The Aqualba

This 1948 Aqualba brings you a record of another year at Whitewater City High. Each new year is marked by the changes it brings in school routine and the outstanding events which have occurred during its course. And so it is with this one.

After an absence of many years the Honor Roll was restored, and about a fourth of the student body had the satisfaction of seeing their names recorded on the list published each quarter.

A new system of collecting attendance slips was organized this year to make possible a roll call check, hour by hour. The slips were collected at the beginning of each period.

This season's basketball games were held at the Armory. Because of the greater seating capacity there the athletic department was able to make a much bigger profit than it had done in previous years.

Out-of-town games were also better attended this year, thanks to Mr. Garriott. He arranged to have a school bus go to all out-of-town games. We all hope that this system can be continued in future years because it makes for better team and school spirit.

Although our high school has no swimming pool, the city this year made up for it by organizing a Red Cross Life Saving Course. Any student who was able to swim fairly well was eligible for the training given at the College pool.

In the way of entertainment, we have had several interesting features this year. At Christmas time students of the Burlington High School presented an exchange program. It consisted of a one-act play, Christmas carols, the Christmas story, and a few other unique features.

On January 21, Merle Evans, the noted leader of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus band, was guest conductor for our high school band. Mr. Evans also told of some of his experiences as "Toscanini of the Big Top."

1948 was an unusual year in that there were only two new members on our faculty. Mrs Wyse, the new choir director and wife of our agriculture teacher, was one, and Miss Firth directed the girls' physical education classes this year.

The improvements heretofore listed are only the more important ones which occurred during this school year. The editors of this annual hope you will also consider the 1948 Aqualba an improvement over the previous years.

Seniors Accomplish Much in Four Years

Four years ago a liberal supply of carefree and green freshmen eagerly entered the portals of City High. Not knowing exactly what was in store for them, they soon found out. However, not before they had elected Dick Thayer as president, Audrey Johnson as vice president, and Maxine Millis as secretary-treasurer. Our first two advisers that memorable year were Mr. Ranzau and Miss Cox. To start things off with a bang that year, we had a "Polka Dot and Stripe" dance that was a big success and a hayride party that was a big fizzle. Like all other freshies we found the so-called "upper classmen" almost unbearable with their cute little tricks, especially the one of delicately seating the boys on the bubblers or the initiations into G.A.A. and Hi-Y. With the end of this year we first realized the splendid class we had—although no one else seemed to think so.

Our second year of high school life was rather quiet. It was like the calm before the storm. At our first class meeting we chose Bill Miller as president, Maxine Millis, vice president, and Jean Ketterhagen to be our secretary-treasurer. Miss Olive Case replaced Mr. Ranzau and served with Miss Cox as our adviser. The class sponsored one or two mixers that year and joined in many outside activities. The class float made its customary appearance in the Homecoming parade, and everyone said that it was a pity they didn't offer a "booby" prize. It was at this point that we all resolved to keep our class an "up and coming" one. We had made a good start and our best two years were still ahead of us.

At the all-important election of officers in our junior year—which incidentally is the year the class underwent several changes in its officers and advisers—we elected Bill Rowe, Dick Thayer, and Dorothy Mackovich as our class officers. Later when Bill and Dorothy left our school, they were replaced by Dick Thayer, president; Gerald Harris, vice president; and Winifred Stacey, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Lund and Mr. Franzmann became our new advisers until Mrs. Lund's resignation when her place was taken by Miss Gehrman. The main event of our junior year was, of course, the annual spring prom. The theme of the dance, "The Old Lamplighter", was very cleverly carried out through the enchanting decorations and murals in the gymnasium. The high-light of the evening came when Dick Thayer crowned his lovely queen Marianne Kettwig. Maintaining, and even exceeding, the school's record for successful proms brought this "up and coming class of '48" another year toward reaching its final goal of graduation.

Then, finally, came the greatest year of all, our senior year. Lois Johnson, Audrey Johnson, and Joyce Jensen were elected as our officers. Mr. Franzmann and Miss Gehrman served as our two very efficient and loyal class advisers. Football captain, Richard Tucker, was king of the homecoming dance and sharing the honors with him was queen Claudine Winnie. The next big event was the class play. To the astonishment of all, an amazing amount of acting ability was displayed when we finally presented "The Sunshine Twins" under the capable direction of Mrs. Finnigan. Everyone agreed that the "class of '48" had done it again.

When we drew near to the time of graduation we all felt a pang of regret in leaving the school we had grown to love. As we left Whitewater City High School to the class of '49 we couldn't help thinking of all the wonderful friends we had made and the many happy memories and experiences we shared with them in the halls and classes of dear old City High.

THE BAND - - - -

The band, under the able direction of Mr. Patt, has again completed a successful year, making this body a credit to our school.

The band appeared in dress uniform for the first time during the year at Homecoming, when they led the parade through town.

On January 21, the community enjoyed a concert under the direction of Merle Evans of the Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus.

On February 18, our school was honored by being host school for the massed band concert, bringing together selected musicians from high schools in this part of the state. Dr. Frank Simon, the guest conductor, appeared here for the fourth time.

A small group of band members provided music at pep meeting and games.

During the spring months the band spent a good deal of time on their selections for the spring tournament, held again in Whitewater with the City High as the host school.

The choir this year was under the direction of Mrs. John Wyse. Its first appearance was made at the Armistice Day program. The choir sang again at the annual Christmas program. The second half of the year was spent in preparing the music for the spring District Music Festival.

Sixteen members of the choir were chosen to represent our school in the mass choir concert at Lake Mills on March 18.

One of the bright spots of the year was the development of a boys' octette which sang at a number of school events in real "barbershop" style and each time delighted its audience greatly.

The following people served as officers:

President ..... Jerry Kitzman

Vice President ..... Ethel Vohs

Secretary-Treasurer .. Bob McCauley

The Future Farmers of America is the national organization of, by, and for farm boys studying vocational agriculture in the public high schools. The organization has spread throughout the United States, the Territory of Hawaii, and the Island of Puerto Rico. The four degrees of active membership are: "Green Hand," "Chapter Farmer," "State Farmer", and America's Farmer". Advancement through these degrees is based on achievement in vocational agriculture.

The activities of our Whitewater Chapter include a program of leadership, community service, cooperation, membership, recreation, and earning and saving.

Leadership

The officers of our Whitewater Chapter attended the annual leadership school at Fort Atkinson. Robert Krahn competed in the sectional public speaking contest at Rochester.

Community Service

This year our chapter was mobilized to wipe out all pests in our community, such as rats, mice, sparrows, crows, and hawks. Our members also exhibited at Walworth, Rock, and Jefferson County fairs.

Membership

Last fall just before the start of school the chapter entertained twenty-eight grade graduates from the rural community around Whitewater. Later in the fall thirty-five members and their parents and guests attended the annual Parent and Son Banquet.

Recreation

The chapter held its second annual Hard Times' dancing party at the City High Gym. During the summer, thirty members journeyed to Northern Wisconsin for a fishing and camping trip.

Earnings and Savings

The past year we sold Hygrade Seeds to help build up our treasury. During the winter we sold candy and pop at several basketball games.

With Winifred Stacey and Gladys Reinke at the masthead, the City High Line successfully sailed through the year. All the news of interest to City High students was published by a very capable staff with the help of Mrs. Andersen.

On October 1, the City High Line's first edition was issued. Since then it has been distributed every two weeks throughout the year. Extra editions were issued for holidays and commencement.

In addition to its news stories there were illustrated covers, interviews, sports, faculty news, gossip, jokes, fashions, and announcements. The grades were also represented by write-ups devoted to their special activities.

The paper was entirely self-supporting. The necessary money was obtained through student subscriptions, a mixer or two, and selling refreshments and pom poms at Homecoming.

The staff positions were as follows:

Editors—Winifred Stacey and Gladys Reinke

Managing Editor—Joyce Sherman
Asst.—Peggy Hill

News Editor—Mary Ann Froemming
Assts.—Helen Erbentraut, Laurene Rowley, Sue Rowley, Delores Klitzke, and Dorothy Wegner

Girls' athletics at City High were again very much in the spotlight this year. The Girls' Athletic Association, with Miss Firth as its new adviser, did much to promote interest in sports activities. Hockey, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and individual sports comprised the calendar for the year.

Officers for the year were:

President	Winifred Stacey
Vice President	Dorothy Mulks
Secretary	Pat Pieper
Treasurer	Shirley Elphick
Members of the Board	Gladys Reinke, Carol Krahnke, Barbara Polzin and Donna Baker

The fall initiation, as usual, was a lot of fun and a great success. Many girls went "through the mill" to present an entertaining spectacle for the rest of the student body and to pay their "entrance fee" into the organization.

Two of the main school dances were in charge of the G.A.A. The first of these was Homecoming. The theme "Art Gallery" was beautifully carried out. The climax of the evening was, of course, the crowning of King Dick Tucker and Queen Claudine Winnie. The second dance was the traditional Gingham Ball on March 19 revolving this year around the theme "Nut Cracker Suite".

All in all, the girls had a very enjoyable and successful year.

This year City High broke the "record" that it has held for the past few years by ending the season in second place in the conference. Out of eight games played City High won six. The team's aggressiveness this year gave the graduating seniors the opportunity they had been fighting for. Paced by Gerald Shroble's hard driving attack, we saw a team that had more drive and greater stamina than any team that has represented our school in recent years. The scores below show the result.

Dick Tucker was elected captain of the team, and besides pulling his weight on the field, reigned as King at the Homecoming festivities. Graduating varsity men are: Charles Harmon, Dick Thayer, Dick Tucker, Thane Uglow, Wayne Stoddard, Bob Frawley, Eugene Hoffman, Walley Green, and Gerald Shroble.

The record that has been established this year should give the teams of the future a goal at which to aim and mean more victories on the scoreboard for City High.

The 1947-48 basketball season was unique in two ways. In the first place, it was marked by a large number of close games in which the victory was gained either at the final whistle or in an overtime period. And in the second place, the Armory floor was used for all home games instead of the high school gym. As a result larger crowds, including an increased number of townspeople, were in attendance at each game.

The following are the results as chalked up on the scoreboard for the season:

Both of these groups, coached by Mr. Crummey and Mr. McGraw, serve as feeders to our "A" teams as well as having a very full and active schedule of their own.

Our school is also represented in baseball, golf, and tennis as well as some limited participation in track.

Whitewater City High is a member of the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association and is participating in all the activities planned by this group.

A one-act play, "The Blue Teapot", under the direction of Miss Krause, was prepared for the drama contest at Oregon, Wisconsin, on November 14 by the following students: Lois Johnson, Bob McCauley, Jim O'Connor, and Nancy Bogie. This play received a "B" rating in the contest.

A new policy introduced in the forensic department is that of exchange programs among five schools. This year Burlington put on a program for our school assembly and we, in turn, furnished a program for Delavan.

This year it is the policy of the four schools in our forensic league to enter two representatives in each group. The "A" winners in each group go on to the district contest. Students who have worked on this are: Dolores Klitzke, Audrey Berg, Nancy Bogie, Don Piper, Charlie Hill, Peggy Hill, Daphne Hengen, Lois Johnson, Marlene Wilken, Eddie Gruetzman, Yvonne Enright, Rita Shroble, Nancy Fowler, Audrey Hanson, and Carol Krahnke.

These activities along with debate have given us a very full and complete forensic program.

Class Play - "The Sunshine Twins"

This year's class play was a hilarious comedy which made a hit with everyone who saw it. The "Sunshine Twins" more than lived up to their name, and the time and effort put into the play produced a wonderful three hours of good entertainment.

The cast was chosen and directed by Mrs. Finnigan. To help her were the student directors, Bonnie Bigelow and Jeanne Christensen. With the help of the stage crew and make-up department everything went off as planned. Following is the cast:

Mrs. Robinson	Lois Johnson
Mr. Robinson	Dick Thayer
Norma Robinson	Audrey Johnson
Glen Robinson	Tom Kyle

The Hi-Y was again organized this year with Mr. Franzmann and Mr. Bartholomew as advisers.

Early in the year the boys started off by enjoying a picnic at the park.

The annual initiation was held early in the fall, and everyone witnessed some strange sights around school that day. There were certainly some beautiful girls among the initiates but none more gorgeous than Wilbur Nelson and Harry Ambrose.

The group provided programs for football and basketball games. They also provided ushers for basketball games.

The boys took over the chore of building the bonfire for Homecoming, and it surely added a lot to the rally.

In November the Waukesha Leader's Convention was attended by Mr. Bartholomew with Bob McCauley and Bud Ardelt.

Mr. Franzmann, Jim O'Connor, and Ray Steck attended the annual Hi-Y dinner in Janesville.

The annual "Sno-Ball" was held on March 5 and everyone who attended agreed he had a wonderful time. The gym was decorated in an antarctic theme. The music was furnished by the Mello-Aires.

The officers this year were as follows:

President ..... Toby Shroble
Vice-President ..... Jim O'Connor
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Dave Chaffee
Sergeant-at-arms ..... Alex McLean

The Aqualba

This year the annual Homecoming Dance had an unusual theme. The gym was magnificently transformed ino a beautiful art gallery, with huge pictures adorning the walls. The king, Dick Tucker, and queen, Claudine Winnie, were one of the loveliest couples ever to look down on the crowd from their golden throne encased by an enormous picture frame. Marching to "On Wisconsin" the court of honor then formed a perfect "W" and led the delighted crowd into the grand march. Approximately one hundred couples danced to the musical strains of Bud Wilburs' Orchestra and a wonderful time was had by all.

Maintaining its usual arctic and antarctic setting the Snowball was a big success. The Hi-Y boys really outdid themselves this year. Occupying the center of attention was a huge ten foot snowman which glistened under dimmed lights. A false ceiling effect was carried out with blue and white streamers fastened to the railing of the gym balcony and swooping to within ten feet of the floor. In addition to all this penguins, polar bears, seals, and igloos adorned the gym transferring it into the North Pole. The music was by the Mello-Aires and everyone agreed that they had had a "hot time in a cold setting".

Not to be outdone, the gals really went all out to make their Gingham Ball another artistic triumph. Their hard work was well rewarded by the beautiful decorations that converted the gym into the theme, "The Nutcracker Suite". A huge spider web covered the entire ceiling and in its center was a large spider. The walls became treble and base clefs with hundreds of musical instruments and notes arranged very cleverly upon them. In one corner, which was the center of attraction, stood a very lovely little wishing well. During the evening many of the couples strolled over, made a silent wish, dropped a coin into its deep mysterious cool waters, and then danced off. Bud Wilbur's Orchestra furnished the music and everyone enjoyed himself. Of course, this being leap year might have had something to do with the size of the crowd.

What could be more fun than a trip to Fairyland? Why the Junior Prom! Well, why not combine the two—and that's just what the class of '49 did. As rumors had previously said, it was really "Out of This World". The Prom was held under a vast pink cloud, centered in a soft sky of blue, with very elaborate decorations. The King's castle was there as well as our favorite fairy tale characters. Yes, even Jack and the Bean-stalk. King Don Piper crowned lovely Rita Shroble as his queen. The evening of dancing was broken by the serving of refreshments to the dancers and also to the chaperones. Bud Wilbur's Orchestra played as the guests danced and paraded in the Grand March.

The Calendar

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 2—School begins again with the old tradition of seeing freshmen sitting on the bubblers. There were two new additions to the faculty—Miss Firth, the girls' phy-ed teacher, and Miss Walker, the vocal music director. We welcome them to our school and hope they enjoy being with us.

Sept. 8—Football is in full swing. There are many new freshman prospects, Bob Schuman and Harry Ambrose to mention only two.

Sept. 10—Rumors have it that Dick Tucker has been chosen captain of this year's football team. This capable senior captain reigns as King at the Homecoming festivities held sometime in October.

Sept. 11—Our old friend, Nick Engler, greets us in an assembly program, to tell us about the magazine campaign. Those who sell a magazine may cast a vote for a senior girl to be Homecoming Queen.

Sept. 12—Four committee members are chosen to help Mr. Hall with the magazine campaign: Joyce Sherman, Winifred Stacey, Tom Kyle, and Audrey Johnson.

Sept. 15—The seniors are signing up for the Aqualba staff in Miss Maerzke's room. The magazine campaign race is on. Claudine Winnie leads for queen. Some runners up are Theresa Cummings, "Punk" Kettwig, and Gladys Reinke.

Sept. 17—Mr. Parker calls an assembly today. Class officers are chosen. Don Piper comes out with flying colors to lead the junior class. He reigns as Prom King in the spring.

Sept. 19—The band practices marching today for the Legion Convention at Fort on Sunday. Our first pep meeting of this year is held in the morning. School is dismissed at 2:45 to attend the game with Janesville, at the athletic field. In spite of the heat, we win an exciting, close game, 14-13.

Sept. 22—The magazine campaign ends with Claudine far ahead. Congratulations, "Deanie." The court will be announced later.

Sept. 23—Miss Walker resigns because of illness, and Mrs. Wyse takes over the choir. The choir members voices are tested—all we need are more male voices, but the competition with football is too stiff.

Sept. 25—The classes and organizations meet and make plans for the Homecoming parade. It looks as if it will be even a better Homecoming than last year.

Sept. 26—We play McHenry today. Our boys are really on the beam as we win again, 19-13. Wayne Stoddard proves himself to be a great aid to us from Palmyra. The sophomores sponsor a mixer with a big crowd present. Lots of alumni turn up.

Sept. 29—Mrs. Andersen's advanced typing class visits the Good Morning office. They learn stenciling, so our City Hi Line should look pretty good. "Winnie" Stacey, G.A.A. president, finds that girls playing hockey are pretty dangerous, especially Delores Bitker.

Sept. 30—The first fire drill of the year is held. It proves to be quite successful. Choir is held at night for the football boys' benefit but not many show up. Mrs. Wyse excuses "Baby John" early to go home to bed, but we find him later eating ice-cream in Rexall's!!

OCTOBER

Oct. 1—The first issue of the City High Line comes out with lots of subscribers. Alumnus Jerry Harris shows up for football practice.

Oct. 2—Hi-Y initiation explains the smeared lipstick on the girls' faces. Don Nelson assures himself of a date for the College Hi Homecoming by asking "Rosie" Long early.

Oct. 3—It's nice to see the boys back in their usual garb rather than the burlap bags of yesterday's initiation. "Drop Dead" is still ringing in some of their ears! We lose the game to Burlington 19-0 on our home field. The Homecoming Court is announced at the pep meeting. The Seniors sponsor a mixer at night.

Oct. 6—The first assembly program of the year is held with Mr. Pond speaking on the Stone Age. Bill Mackie is so proud of his new hand-knitted socks he shows them to everyone in 2nd hour Chemistry.

Oct. 7—Mrs. Andersen's room is transferred to the sixth grade room. Some difference! Some Homecoming couples are Anita Meyer and Jim O'Connor, Joan Kachel and Wayne Scheiwe.

Oct. 9—Fran Achen comes to take pictures for the Aqualba.

Oct. 10—We play Lake Geneva there. We win 7-0. Jerry Shroble really shows some fine football. We're glad to see so many students turning up at the game. That's the spirit, kids!

Oct. 13—The magazine prizes come. The new recording machine in Miss Krause's speech class is really swell. At night Attorney DeBaufer gives a talk on "Robert's Rules of Order" to the faculty and organization leaders.

Oct. 15—School is dismissed at noon so the teachers can prepare for "Go To School Night" for the parents. We have an assembly with fire prevention movies shown and ending with a fire drill.

Oct. 16—The class of '49 choose their class rings. They seem to all agree it was a good choice. Miss Firth tries vainly to get the court practicing for Homecoming.

Oct. 17—Another victory was chalked up for City High when the boys defeated Delavan on their field, 34-19. We have a fighting team and we're certainly proud of them. Jim O'Connor furnishes much amusement at the pep meeting when he acts as a dead Delavan player. We find "Rev." Ray Steck playing his role nicely.

Oct. 20—Fran Achen begins taking the senior pictures The homecoming floats are in full swing.

Oct. 21—Everyone enjoys an assembly when "The Mathematical Mind Man" shows himself to be a memory wizard. He proves to us you just Pay Attention and you can have a good memory. Dick Arnold and Marlene Wilkens take an active part in the assembly.

Oct. 22—The science classes go to the "House of Magic" in Fort for an electrical demonstration. The gym shows signs of "An Art Gallery." The court practices with "Among My Souvenirs."

Oct. 23—Chief John Dega warns us of "early Hallowe'ening" when he speaks to the student body. The bonfire and pep rally is a huge success. Much credit goes to Mr. Garriott who wheels "Captain Dick" in a wheelbarrow down to Max's.

Oct. 24—Homecoming Day starts with a parade at 1:30. We lose the game to Harvard 27-7. The sorrows of losing were drowned in the music of Bud Wilbur's Orchestra. The dance proves to be a huge success, and much credit goes to "Dottie" Mulks and Mr. Franzmann and all others who made it what it was.

Oct. 27—Today seems to be a "Blue Monday" as City Hi students settle back to studying after the Homecoming events are o'er.

Oct. 28—Sniffles and sneezes are heard in the City Hi halls as a big cold wave spreads to the students.

Oct. 29—Jess Campbell, head of the Chamber of Commerce, tells the students about the Hallowe'en party to be held Friday evening at the Armory.

Oct. 30—The "kiddies" are delighted at drawing Hallowe'en pictures on the downtown store windows. Mrs. Finnigan is absent with a cold.

Oct. 31—The Quakers are back "in the groove", as they take Marengo 33-0 on Marengo's field. Swell work, fellows.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 3—G.A.A. holds initiation, and the girls all prove to be good sports. "Beauty is as beauty does" - - - ?!? but I wouldn't be so sure.

Nov. 4—Mr. Finnigan has quite an unusual social problems class. You can even admit you're bored and still remain in class! How about it, Audrey?

Nov. 5—Reports cards come out! We see some "long faces", and that's as good a reason as any. School is dismissed for Teachers' Convention. The last game of the season and we win over Elkhorn in spite of the rainy weather.

Nov. 10—Convention week is over, and the kids rather reluctantly come back to school—and all this snow, too! We are all distressed to hear of the death of Allen Henderson, a graduate of City Hi.

Nov. 11—Seniors select their invitations and calling cards for graduation. The boys successfully persuade the girls that their choice of invitations is best. School is dismissed at noon, after the Armistice Day program.

Nov. 12—We notice the fellows are practicing for basketball, and on the balcony can be seen many appreciative onlookers. Isn't that right, Bonnie?

Nov. 14—College Hi sponsors the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and Bill Fardy and many other "freshies" seem to be enjoying themselves. "The Blue Teapot" is presented at Oregon in a forensic contest.

Nov. 17—Monday morning greets Theresa C. with a little live turtle in her locker.

Nov. 18—As of today we hear "Punkie" Kettwig is "going steady" with Bill Berger, an ex-student at City Hi. We wonder what happened, Bob?

Nov. 20—Miss Krause picks the cast for the speech class's plays. We're all looking forward to seeing them.

Nov. 21—Tonight is the big night! Both College and City Hi have Hard Times parties. Bob McCulloch proves to be a very successful bubble-gum blower, while Donna Cooper and Bill Wright receive the prize for the "best dressed." An assembly on science by Mr. Glen Borris, with the enthusiastic help of Eddie Gruetzman and Lois Johnson, is enjoyed immensely by everyone.

Nov. 25—What are you planning on doing when school is out? That was Mr. Haukohl's theme when he talked to the juniors and seniors today. City Hi, in a non-conference game, played Milton Union in the first basketball game of the season. The score was 32-31 in favor of the Quakers.

Nov. 26—In City Hi's first conference game, we defeated McHenry 26-25. School is dismissed for Thanksgiving. Don't eat too much, kids!

DECEMBER

Dec. 1—Back to school again and we notice two new blondes—Karol Ann Wolf, a sophomore, and Corrine Ranney, a senior.

Dec. 3—Our sympathy is extended to Mr. Crummey in the loss of his father.

Dec. 4—Martin Mc. and Charlie Hill find out Mrs. Wyse means business. We now have two less tenors! Rev. T. Perry Jones gives an excellent speech to the assembly on the right outlook toward Christmas and its true meaning.

Dec. 5—After defeating Burlington on their floor, 21-19, City Hi is on top in the SWANI League. Good work, boys, and let's stay there!

Dec. 8—The "little pink slips" are sent out, so buckle down, kids, the end of the quarter is near.

Dec. 9—City Hi fights a losing battle. as we lose the game to Lake Geneva, 41-33. Come on, boys. The F.F.A. hold their annual banquet.

Dec. 12—We lose another to Delavan, 46-26.

Dec. 15—The last week before Christmas vacation. Stick it out, kids.

Dec. 18—Burlington presents an exchange program here today. We're hoping for more like it. "Chuck" Dodson proves himself to be a good introducer.

Dec. 19—The speech class presents a play, "The Christmas Chime." Much credit goes to Claudine Winnie who took the part of Anita Meyer. We play Harvard, winning 30-28. Nice going, Quakers. School is dismissed 'till next year so "A Merry Christmas!"

JANUARY

Jan. 5—Christmas vacation is over, and some of the kids don't seem too happy about it. 'Twas fun, wasn't it?

Jan. 6—Class play try-outs are held and it seems we have some quite talented young people, eh, Thayer? Miss Firth is sporting a diamond. Congratulations to her!

Jan. 7—Milton Union bows to us tonight 42-20 in the "old home town." Benzer, Hoffman, and Olson play an exceptionally fine game.

Jan. 9—Our team does it again. They loop Marengo in a thrilling game, 39-38, with three minutes overtime. The juniors hold a "Snow Fall" mixer afterwards. "Chuck" Harmon should have something to say about this!

Jan. 13—The student body enjoys the talented "Plantation Singers" this morning. Elkhorn brings us down off our pedestal by defeating us 45-37.

Jan. 14—The second hour speech class presents a play "Not Tonight", in an assembly. Admiral Gerke was quite a striking character as was "shy" Tom Kyle in the love scenes with Theresa.

Jan. 15—Class play practices are going along smoothly —only boy friends do confuse you and your lines, don't they, Ketter?

Jan. 16—"Liz" Enright injures her leg in gym. McHenry noses out City Hi 37-32 there. Come on, fellows—.

Jan. 19—Second semester begins, and a great number of schedules are changed.

Jan. 21—The band concert with Merle Evans is held this afternoon and evening. Reports cards are given out after the concert.

Jan. 23—Burlington downs the Quakers 37-25 on our home floor. The Hi-Y sponsors a mixer after the game.

Jan. 26—Shirley Snyder has been seen with an alumnus as of late. Despite the absence of Mrs. Andersen, the "City Hi Line" is coming along fine under the direction of "Winnie" and Gladys.

Jan. 27—The economics class has started a budget, and it seems some of the students could use some more money. How about it, "Chris"?

Jan. 29—The seniors have begun exchanging pictures among themselves. Some are pretty good.

Jan. 30—"Punky" seems to be having trouble with Benzer. Again or yet?

Jan. 31—Lake Geneva cleans us 30-20 in a game there. The fellows better really buckle down.

FEBRUARY

Feb. 2—The seniors nominate girls to receive the D.A.R. award. They are: Rosalie Long, Theresa Cummings, and Lois Johnson. Final selection made by faculty is Lois Johnson.

Feb. 3—Alumni Bob Priewe, Dave Duffin, and Bill McCord, members of the air force, visit school.

Feb. 4—What's this we hear about the speech classes telling fairy tales? The big question is, "What were the seven dwarfs' names in 'Snow White'?" Yes, Tucker?

Feb. 5—In another of our "one point games" we scoop Delavan 35-34 with an overtime. Nice work, boys!

Feb. 6—Everyone is glad to hear there is a teacher's convention in Madison today.

Feb. 10—Harvard defeats us 43-34 in a game played here. It also is observed as our centennial game with entertainment at the half by speakers Julius Johnson and Robert DeBaufer and an old-time basketball game.

Feb. 11—The juniors are sporting their new class rings. They're really super, especially the onyx ones. The seniors have begun to sell their class play tickets.

Feb. 13—City High takes another beating, this time by Marengo, 47-39.

Feb. 17—The Sno-Ball has been postponed until March 5. More time to get a date, boys?!?

Feb. 18—Dr. Frank Simon's mass band concert is held in an afternoon and evening performance. As usual, it is a huge success.

Feb. 20—A very amusing pep meeting is put on by the Hi-Yers. Mr. McGraw, Mr. Hall, Mr. Garriott, and Mr. Franzmann sing and Miss Krause gives a stirring pep talk. The fellows defeat Elkhorn 36-26.

Feb. 23—School is dismissed at noon to honor George Washington's birthday.

Feb. 24—After many weeks of hard work, the seniors put on their play, "The Sunshnie Twins". Everyone agrees that the play was excellent, thanks to Mrs. Finnigan, the cast, and efficient help of many other students.

Feb. 26—G.A.A. girls put on a very unusual pep meeting. Mr. Bartholomew is really a Sinatra, isn't he? We lose our tournament game with Delavan, 33-31.

Feb. 27—City Hi travels to Beloit again to win the game with Wilmot. "Chuckles" Harmon makes the extra point, making the score 32-30.

MARCH

March 2—Due to Mrs. Andersen's absence, Mrs. Thayer is teaching the commercial subjects. Lois Johnson is named D.A.R. award recipient.

March 15—Anyone here bothered with income tax reports?

March 17—The decorations for the Gingham Ball are well on the way, the theme being the "Nut Cracker Suite."

March 19—Many new couples are found dancing to the music of Bud Wilbur's orchestra at the annual Gingham Ball. Much credit should go to the G.A.A. girls who, with the decorations and intermission entertainment, made this another successful dance.

March 23—Miss Anita Kitzman of the State Board of Health talks to the girls on the subject of nursing as a career.

March 24—School is dismissed for a week's Easter vacation.

April 1—Back to school and this is no April Fool's joke! The last eight weeks begin!
